

Sample Employment Screening Report Package B

SSN Search / Address History Report

We start most of our reports with this search because it is a quick and easy way to see if your applicant is who they say they are.

This report verifies their social security number, and identifies if there are other people using that ssn. It tells you if the ssn is valid and when and where it was issued. It also shows your applicant's address history so you can match up what they list on their application to where they have really been living. .

Criminal Record Search

County Criminal Search - These direct county courthouse searches are the best way to see if your applicant has a criminal past. Many of our clients search a seven year history.

National Criminal Database Search - We don't recommend relying solely on a database search, but it can be a good tool to use as pointer device.

Sex Offender Search - We search the National and State sex offender lists.

Credentials

Employment Verification - We'll verify current and previous employment and can customize what questions we ask based on what you would like to know.

Driving Record (Motor Vehicle Record) - Driving records are often a good indicator about how your applicant comports themselves. Employers can be responsible for the actions of their employees who drive while on the job - vicarious liability. It is a good idea to know the current driving status of your employee.
